Pittsburgh, October 25, 1816—2aw1m

FOR SALE,

That very Valuable Real Estate called

HAMILTON HALL.

THE subscriber, wishing to remove from the country to a town, offers for sale, his beautiful FARM, on which he now resides, ten miles from the city of Pittsburgh, on the southwest bank of the Monongahela river, and two miles from M'Keesport, on the confluence of the Youghiogany and Monongahela rivers, and nearly opposite the mouth of Turtle creek.

This tract consists of about 275 acres of choice land, of which there is nearly 140 acres of first rate river and run bottom—the remainder is excellent tillable upland—there is about 90 acres of river bottom land cleared, which will produce as good corn and grass crops as any in the western country. In point of beauty, as well as excellent quality, this farm is excelled by none. The dwelling house is spacious, 72 feet in length, and one and a half story high, very neat and handsomely finished; a large barn with stables underneath, besides a horse stable, and other out houses, two tenant houses, and an excellent new Saw-mill, with a fall of 22 feet, and a stream of water sufficient for the purpose, for nearly nine months in the year. The same seat will admit of a grist or other mills also. There are several excellent springs for distilling: a handsome garden, stocked with all kinds of shrubbery; a young thriving Orchard, of the best fruit, and more than 3000 sugar trees on said farm.

If desired, there will be sold with the estate 100 full blooded, three fourths, and half blooded MERINO SHEEP, of superior quality and beauty, besides horses, cows, &c. and all kinds of farming utensils. The proximity to Pittsburgh and its excellent market, which unquestionably is the best in the Union, and the convenience as well by land as by water, makes it one of the most desirable and valuable estates in the western country; not only the bottoms but a considerable part of the upland, is excellently calculated for meadow. A full description is deemed unnecessary, as it is presumed the property will not be purchased without viewing it; however, it is calculated the estate will clear from 2500 to $3000 per annum, if well attended to. It is clear of all incumbrance, and an indisputable title will be given.

Besides the above, the subscriber will sell three excellent tracts of BOTTOM LAND, situate about five miles from Harmony, and nine miles from Beaver, 25 miles from Pittsburgh, on the Conequenessing. This land is of the very best quality for meadow or corn; each tract has an improvement upon it; one a saw mill; and another, a good dwelling house, barn, &c.

CHARLES VON BONNHORST.

October 15.—2awtf.

N. B. For further information apply to James M. Riddle, in the Diamond, Pittsburgh.

The Real Estate of STEEL SEMPLE, Deceased.

THIS LAND is situated within 2 and 3 miles of Pittsburgh, and is divided into small Lots of from five, six, ten and twelve acres.

The survey and draft are now completed, and the lines of the Lots and lanes, plainly and distinctly marked on the ground.

This land is fertile, near to the city, and convenient to good roads. It is so divided as to be convenient for gardners, persons desirous of attending market, or to farmers of small capital. As Out-lots, they are well suited to persons residing in the city.

They are offered for Sale on a credit of from twelve to eighteen months. The plan can be seen at my office. WILLIAM WILKINS.

Latest Foreign Intelligence.

[From the London Traveller, Sept. 18.]

The claims of the American government upon the Court of Naples for compensation in lieu of the American property confiscated by Murat, are no longer doubtful, with respect to their nature and extent. A sum of money adequate to cover the alienated property, or the cession of a port in the Mediterranean, would satisfy the President of the United States, but would it satisfy Europe? The Neapolitan Government has been reinstated in its present possessions by the co-operation and convention of the great Powers of Europe. They guarantee tenure, and no part of them can be ceded or yielded in sovereignty to any other power, without the consent of those by whose act they are held. There is something inconceivably despicable in the conduct of America in the present instance, with respect to Naples. She could tamely prostrate herself to every insult offered her by Bonaparte or Murat; to their will or caprice she was ever ready to sacrifice her wrongs and resentments; but the moment the ancient government is re-established, she assumes an arrogance and loftiness which she dared not to shew to usurpers.

The London Courier of the 19th September, gives the following articles:—

"The re-establishment of the Jews as a Nation is the subject of a Letter from Cairo. Babylon and its environs, as far as Libanus, are the theatre of great events. A Jew of the tribe of Dan is said to have collected a prodigious number of discontented Jews—200,000. Nothing checks his progress. He calls himself the King of the Jews, and the People name him HOSIANNAH MASSAS. Musselmen quit the standard of MAHOMET to fight under the Lion of JUDA. The Porte has been informed of the progress of the Conqueror, but is not able to arrest it."

INTERESTING SUMMARY.

From the Boston Palladium, Nov. 1.

The English letters from Paris, Sept. 16, mention that a majority of the late Chamber of Deputies, have circulated a protest against its di-solution, and labour to counteract the views of the King. They say he is badly advised, and fatally mistakes the sentiments of persons about him, for those of the nation.—Frequent desertions are said to have taken place among the Vendean corps.

Savary and Lallemand are now said to be in Hungary.

Eugene Beauharnois, son of Napoleon's first wife, is building a Palace at Munich which will cost above a million of francs.

The Spanish General, Espozey Mina has published in the Paris papers of Sept. that he still remains in that city; that it may be presumed the pretended Gen. Mina who is said to have arrived in the U. S. is no other than his nephew, who never was a General, and if he has usurped that title, he (E. y. M.) is warranted in believing his only object is to mislead the Americans, as he has already done the inhabitants of London by drawing from them sums of money, which they supposed they were giving to E. y. M.—that he is ignorant of the object of Lt. Col. M. but if his project should prove contrary to the interests of Spain he shall disavow him as a member of his family.

Lord Exmouth is to return to England, and not to proceed against Tunis and Tripoli.

The Prime Minister of the Dey of Algiers, to whom was entrusted the defence of the entrance of the port, is accused of not using the batteries which he commanded, by which the enemy advanced, and took the other batteries in reverse.

The Emperor of Austria is to marry Princess Charlotte of Bavaria, aged 24, the divorced wife of the Prince Royal of Wurtemburg. The Emperor's oldest son is to be betrothed to his mother-in-law's sister Elizabeth, 15 years of age.

The Prince Royal of Portugal is to return to Europe, and to remain as Vice Roy of his father's trans-atlantic territories—and is to marry a daughter of the Emperor of Austria.

The brilliant success of the expedition against the Barbarians of Algiers, occasions the utmost joy in all classes of subjects, excepting the opposition scribblers; and they, sitting in their closets, declare that enough has not been done; and tho' it is true we have destroyed a fleet which will require from five to ten years to rebuild—and battered down the bastions of ages: yet we ought to have taken the city and destroyed it. Now, had this city been taken and destroyed, these same gallant and inexorable quill drivers would have moaned out their lamentations, that the country was not taken; and the whole race, men, women and children, put to the sword. But the public pretty well understand these whinings; and the despicable sources in which they originate.

Before his attack on Algiers, Lord Exmouth made arrangements with Tunis, Tripoli, &c. His Lordship's despatch plainly indicates that the two days war is over.

It is quite fashionable of late years, for our despatch writers to lament, in set phrazes, losses in action. But do they expect, that battles can be fought by those whose trade is death, without bloodshed? The whole killed in the Algerine battle and those wounded are all on the recovery) amount to no more than 123. When the magnitude of the object effected is considered, we ought to bless God that our loss was no more.

LONDON, Sept, 20

We received yesterday the Paris papers of Monday last. The chief article of their contents is a new and entertaining story from Babylon, where we are told no less than 200,000 Jews have been collected under a Leader of the tribe of Dan who calls himself King of the Jews, who bears down all opposition, and whose progress nothing can stop. This romantic tale purports to be copied from a German Journal, in which it appeared in the shape of a letter from Cairo. Some of the French papers, however, suppose it to be a fabrication of the Anti-Israelites in Germany; but what the party called the Anti-Israelites have in view, it is difficult to conjecture; probably the Senate of Frankfort, who lately issued a decree against the Jews, belong to this party.

ALGIERS

If we rightly understand the situation of Algiers, the houses are built on the sea shore on the side of a mountain, so that these ranges of buildings resemble in form an amphitheatre as they gradually approximate the mountain. The buildings are all white, with flat roofs, and so closely joined together, that the public walks for the benefit of the air may be said to be on the tops of the houses. As the ranges are more elevated as they recede from the sea, those in the rear are not excluded from the benefit of the sea breeze, nor from the prospect by those which are placed in front. The bay is protected by a mole in a circular form, defended by heavy batteries. At each extremity of this crescent, are strong fortifications to command the entrance into the bay. Here we presume that the Algerine fleet rode at anchor under the protection of the batteries, awaiting the approach of the squadron commanded by Lord Exmouth. A better mode of defending the city it would be difficult to imagine, an impregnable mole in front of the city, defended by strong batteries and a fleet riding at anchor, under cover of the fortifications to secure the avenue where the hostile squadron were approaching. The result proves how superior skill and enterprize may overcome the best founded calculations. The British commander found that his bombs made but little or no impression, as the roofs of the houses were flat and so well protected by earth, that they did but little damage. An English officer volunteered his services to burn the first Algerine frigate which was anchored to command the entrance of the mole. He apprehended no further injury than the destruction of a single ship. This offer was accepted, and the wind setting strongly in one direction, destroyed, we presume, the whole of the enemy's fleet riding in a line at anchor, and unable to escape in season from the sweeping conflagration. Telegraph

From Hobhouse's Letters from France.

A French colonel, who attended the emperor at Fontainbleau during the days of his abdication, informed me that he was standing by the side of Napoleon on the parade, when M. de Caulincourt brought him the first news of his deposition. The event was communicated in a whisper. Napoleon drew back a step, bit his lip, and a faint flush passed across his cheeks; but he recovered himself instantaneously, and continued the review. For the first twenty-four hours subsequent to his fall, he was a little unquiet; but afterwards was restored to his usual spirits and manners. It was a melancholy scene; the long corridors, the saloons of this vast palace, even the anti-chamber of Napoleon, were crowded with officers and soldiers, sauntering carelessly from room to room, without subordination, but without disturbance: for not only all order was lost, but all spirit even for commotion had subsided. Each morning as they rose, some marshal, some general, or minister, on being asked for by the emperor, was found to have dropped off to Paris.

Napoleon, when he put his name to the abdication, made two or three scratches and a dent with the stump of the pen, or back of a knife, on the little round claw footed table, on which it was signed. After his resignation of the empire, he spent his time either in conversation in his apartment, or in a little English garden at the back of the palace, which he had himself laid out at considerable expense. In the midst of it there is a circular marble fountain, with the figure of Diana rising from the centre of the bath. On a stone bench beside it, and immediately opposite to a vista, at the end of which is a figure of Mercury on a pedestal, Napoleon, on one of these days of distress, was seated alone for three hours, and amused himself in kicking a hole a foot deep with his heel, in the gravel beneath. The keeper of the palace of Fontainbleau shewed me both the table and the fountain.

Conversing one day with the colonel, he said, 'it is not the armies that have dethroned me, not the combined sovereigns, not the extraordinary efforts of England; but the progress of liberal ideas, which if I had regarded for four or five years past, I should have confirmed my power forever. However,' said he gaily, 'I did not, and it is come to this.' In the conversation to which I have before alluded, which he held with Mr. Sismondi, he said, 'that he was the child of the revolution; that he owed all his greatness to the emancipation of France from its ancient servitude; that he knew and was attached to the true principles of liberty; 'quoique je m'en suis ecarte,' added he; 'but I have felt and suffered, and I acknowledge the absolute necessity and demand for freedom in this country.'

MERMAID PEARL.

In a Calcutta paper of May 29th, we find advertised for sale, "by order of government," a jewel called "the Mermaid Pearl," lately transmitted to Bengal from Java, and stated to be of enormous size and value. It is about one inch and five-eighths in length, and three and a half in circumference; and its shape resembling the human body, with the right hand raised above the head in the act of combing the hair. By the addition of gold and enamel, the form of a Mermaid has been obtained. The tail is exquisitly united to the body, of a most beautiful green; the waist ornamented with a rich girdle, studded with thirteen rubies—The head superbly adorned with rubies and enamel work.—The whole said to be a fit ornament for the regalia of a Monach. Bos. Cen.

Ages of Authors,—Some authors have been remarkable for longevity. Solon, Juvenal, Bacon, Buffon, and Rollin, were 80—Plato and Magliabechi, 81—Lycurgus, Crousaz, Voltaire and Bishop Barlow, 85—Crebillon and Whitby, 88—Diogenes, Sophocles, St. Evermont & Waller, 90—Jerome & Sir Christopher Wren, 91—Cornaro & Hesiod, 100—Hippocrates was 104—Democritus 109—and Epimenides, 154.

Ages of Musicians.—Hase and the Elder Bach died at the age of 80; Matheson at 82; Pepush at 85; Telemon at 86; Tellis and Rosengrave at 87; Child at 90; Corelli and Corvetto at 96; and Creighton at the age of 97.

Ages of Painters.—Painters too are remarkable for the age to which they respectively arrive. Snyders lived to 78—Claude, Lorain and Albani to 82—Teniers to 84—Michael de Crayer to 95—and Titian to 92.

PITTSBURGH.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1816.

On Wednesday morning last, on motion of Henry Baldwin, Esq. Edward J. Roberts and Harmar Denny were admitted to practice as Attornies in the several courts of Common Pleas in this district.

Remarkable circmstance.—A Paris paper of September 19, received at the Columbian office, New York, has the following piece of intelligence: "The ship Christine, which has just arrived from the Isle of France at Bordeaux, experienced, in passing under the line [equator] such cold as obliged the crew to clothe themselves as in winter to guard against its inclemency."

At a meeting of the Directors of the Bank of the United States, held on the 4th inst. at Mr. Girard's Banking House, WILLIAM JONES Esq. was elected President; and JONATHAN SMITH Esq. Cashier thereof.

At a meeting of the Synod of Pittsburgh, in the town of Washington, Oct. 3d 1816.—The following resolution was brought forward by the committee of Bills and Overtures; and adopted by the Synod: viz.—The excessive use of ardent spirits produces idleness. poverty and wretchedness—It destroys health and reputation. Introduces discord into families and larger communities—It enervates the strong and changes many of the wise into idiots—It threatens to sweep our land as with the besom of destruction: and calls loudly on all the friends of religion, order, science and humanity, to exert their influence in checking an evil so alarming in its progress, and so ruinous in its effects—Therefore, the Synod Resolved,

That ardent spirits ought never to be used, except as a medicine—That the free and common use of them at the raising of buildings—at military parades—weddings, and other public and social occasions is unnecessary, and pernicious.—That the custom of making them a part of the entertainment at social visits is one of those fashions of the world to which christians ought not to conform.—That the habitual use of ardent spirits in families, and by labourers, is training up thousands for poverty, disgrace, the prison, the gallows and eternal misery. The Synod therefore recommend to all the ministers and professors of religion, within their bounds, to abstain from the unnecessary use of ardent spirits; and to endeavour both by precept and example to check the progress of this growing and destructive vice.

Resolved, That it be recommended to the different ministers of this Synod to read this resolution to their respective congregations; and that the permanent clerk be instructed to request the editors of all the News-papers published within the bounds of this Synod to publish the same.

Extract from the minutes of Synod.
JOSEPH STOCKTON,
Permanent Clerk.

The different editors of papers in the Western country, friendly to the interests of morality and religion are respectfully requested to publish the above resolution.

The Plattsburgh Republican of the 19th ultimo says. "it is understood that col. Totten has received orders for erecting fortifications on this frontier—in pursuance of which some military works will be commenced at the line, near Rouse's Point, the present fall."

The Legislature of Connecticut have appropriated the 145,000 dollars due that state from the United States, for advances made during the late war, as follows:—One third part to the use of the Presbyterian denomination of Christians, for the support of the gospel; one third part to the Episcopalians for the support of a bishop; one eighth to the Baptist Society; one twelfth to the Methodist Society: and one seventh to Yale College.—The remainder, if received, to remain in the treasury till the next meeting of the legislature.

An association of Attornies has been formed in England, for the purpose of "promoting and sustaining the respectability of the profession," by excluding from the Society all dishonorable persons.

Population of the world.—Europe, as it is supposed, contains 180,000,000 souls; Asia including Australasia and Polynisia, 500,000,000; Africa. 60,000,000; and America, 35,000,000. Total, 765,000,000.

The number of Post Offices in the U. States, is about 2,450. The mail is carried 46,380 miles in stages, and 61,171 in sulkeys, and on horseback.

We understand that an offer of ten millions of Dollars has been made to the Bank of the United States, by an English House, at 4s 8d. which is not quite four per cent. premium.—N. Y. Gaz.

More Specie.—The ship Cordelia, arrived at Boston from Hamburg, brought home 80,000 Dollars.

"THE INFAMOUS SLAVE TRADE."

Under this head, the Richmond Enquirer, after mentioning the fact, that 1500 slaves from Africa were brought into the Havanna, from the 5th to the 12th of Sept. last, thus remarks—"Humanity shudders at this abomination. The spirit of the age denounces it in the voice of thunder. The Almighty has no attribute, which can take side, with such an atrocious heresey."

MICHIGAN TERRITORY.

Perhaps there is no place in America which holds out such inducements to mechanics and farmers, as the city and vicinity of Detroit, in the territory of Michigan. Although a new country, it is an old settlement, at the head of Lake Erie, and the grand emporium of the fur trade, and a very respectable military post. It is without exception the pleasantest country in America abounding with the finest fruits, fish and wild game in great profusion. Nothing can exceed the beauty of the country, sailing up the straights of Detroit, 18 miles to that city. The population is rapidly increasing, and a great road is making by the troops into the state of Ohio, which will be a continued turnpike to Pittsburgh. Transportation from Albany by land or water to Buffalo, and from thence in vessels direct to Detroit, can be had constantly in the summer season. Government have directed two light houses to be erected on Lake Erie. Preparations are also making for two steam boats to run between Buffalo and Detroit the ensuing season.—Al. Adv.

Of Bonaparte.—By late arrivals in England from St. Helena, the government had received official advices of the situation of Napoleon Bonaparte in that island. He continued to enjoy health, and was settled down in a quiescent, methodical way of living, at Longwood; sees little company, and never goes beyond his interior bounds. He is constantly attended by Count Las Casas. Marshal Bertrand, with his wife and family, live four miles from Longwood. Madame Bertrand was greatly afflicted at the news of the condemnation of her husband to death, by the French Court Martial; as it frustrated all her plan of returning to France for the education of her four children.

Bonaparte some times indulges in pleasantries. The following is an instance.—The captain of the British 50 gun ship Newcastle was introduced, and the ex-emperor made very minute inquiries as to her tonnage weight of metal, &c, On being told she carried 24 pounders, and 42 pound carronades, he asked, "What chance would you stand with a French 74?" If it was blowing hard, answered the captain, so as to prevent her opening her lower ports, we could take her, not otherwise. How long, continued B. do you think you would be in taking a large 38 gun frigate? Do you mean French continued the captain Napolean smiled and said, no. "American"—About ten minutes was the answer; on which the ex-emperor laughed heartily, bid adieu, and mounted his carriage, which was waiting for him. [Boston Centinel.

From the New York Evening Post, Nov. 4.

The Great Bandit.—Last night the store of Major and Gillespie was unlocked, and entered by some ingenious and very expert hand at similar feats. Being thus securely and quietly in possession, and having reconnoitered the premises, and found a large iron chest, he naturally concluded it contained some hidden treasure, wherefore, with a huge sledge hammer, he very deliberately, peaceably, and without causing any alarm, proceeded to maul the said iron chest (the watchman keeping a suitable distance all the time) until he, like another Romeo, in the church yard, broke open his ponderous iron jaws, and made him disgorge his precious contents. Having secured his principal object, he returned the same way he enteered, but being undisturbed, and in no hurry, and thinking it would be some satisfaction to the owners to know at least, what had become of their property, he took pen and ink, and by the light of a convenient lanthorn, sat down and penned the following brief epistle:

"I have taken about 60 dollars in money, a check of 1000 dollars, and some linen, but your papers are all safe. Be prudent and don't puolish this if you regard the safety of your store.

ABAELLINO."

He then withdrew, and was carefully locking the door after him, with the false key, by means of which he entered, when the sight of a window opening across the street alarmed him, and he ran off, leaving one of his gloves. By the light of the moon, he was seen to be a well dressed man, and, probably, is, at this moment, lounging in Broadway, in the character of the gallant Flodoardo.

In the chronicles of ancient times, ASIA is the quarter of the World distinguished as the prominent theatre of remarkable events. It was there the first man was created—It was there Noah's ark rested after the flood, and repeopled the world—It was there the most celebrated monarchies were formed—there the patriarchs lived—there the law was given to Moses—there Jesus Christ appeared; and finally, Asia was the scene of Mahometan imposture, and still remains bound in those fetters, which that arch-hypocrite was ambitious to impose on an ignorant and benighted World.

EUROPE, has also enjoyed her days of pre-eminence in the calender of time, yet not as peculiarly favoured by Heaven. Her political revolutions in the last half century have confounded the world. She seems at this moment to be reposing from her convulsions, and no man can tell her future destiny. Perhaps to the bright days of her glory. Heaven ordains shall now succeed a night of despotism and political insignificance, as has reigned over Asia for a thousand years!

Poor Africa! has she enjoyed her day? What has she been—what can she ever be? Plunged in barbarism, ignorance, and the most frightful superstition, she has drank deep of the cup of sorrow, and groaned many long years in slavery. Has the philanthropist much to hope from the future?

But to AMERICA, the heart turns with joy. There Liberty rested, when she had been driven from every other quarter of the Globe—There she erected her altar, and proclaimed to the oppressed of all nations, a safe asylum, peace, plenty, tolerance, political freedom, and fixed the forbidden Rubicon to the march of tyranny! May her Empire co-extend with time, and her blessing be diffused throughout the World.

MEDICAL.

From the National Register.

The Hooping-cough being at present generally prevalent among children, and as persons living in the country, at a distance from medical aid, may be rendered very uneasy by the urgent symptoms it sometimes assumes, I think it may be useful to make known to such a very simple remedy for this distressing infantile disorder; which was suggested to me some years since by a lady on Cumberland Island, in the State of Georgia. The good effects of this remedy I witnessed in upwards of fifty cases, among the black children on the plantation; all of whom, by the use of this remedy, passed through the disease, without experiencing one bad symptom, while the children in the neighbourhood, treated in the usual manner by the physicians, were dying in great numbers. This remedy consists of equal portions of new milk and the lye strained from hickory ashes; of which one table spoonful may be given every hour through the day to a child of 7 or 8 years old. Astruck supposes the cause of this disorder to be seated in the stomach, and to consist of indigestions of that organ, producing acid eructations, and sometimes vomiting, whereby the pharynx and larynx are irritated. Admitting this to be the cause, the rationale of the operation of this medicine becomes at once obvious consisting in the neutralization of the superabundant acid of the stomach by the vegetable salt that is held suspended in the lye.

AN ACCOUNT OF LEE'S
Patent and Family Medicines:

Celebrated for the cure of most diseases to which the human body is liable.

PARTICULARLY

Worms,	Corns,
Coughs and Colds,	Itch,
Asthma,	Diseases of the Eyes,
Consumption,	Ringworms, Tetters,
Gout,	&c.
Rheumatism,	Inward weaknesses,
Sprains,	Nervous disorders,
Paisy,	Female complaints,
Head ache,	Hooping cough.
Tooth ache,

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers.

The proprietor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

In sickly times or places, a dose should be taken every fortnight, and if there is reason to apprehend personal danger, it may be taken once a week.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S
Worm Destroying Lozenges.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of a similar title so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is, its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent and is so mild in its operation, that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady, or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach or bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many other fatal disorders.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the "vomiting and purging of children," a dreadful disorder which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness, having a pleasing appearance and an agreeable taste.

HAMILTON'S
Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Consumptions	Indigestion
Lowness of Spirits	Melancholy
Loss of Appetite	Gout in the stomach
Impurity of the Blood	Pains in the Limbs
Hysterical Affections	Relaxations, &c
Inward Weaknesses

The principal operation of this remedy is in the stomach, restoring the digestive powers, and sending forth from that organ new health and vigor into every part of the system; it enriches and purifies the blood without inflaming it; braces, without stimulating too violently, the nervous system; strengthens the secretory vessels, and the general habit, brings back the muscular fibres to their natural and healthy tone; and restores that nutrition which immoderate evacuations had destroyed, and whose loss had thrown the whole frame into langour and debility.

HAMILTON'S

ITCH CURED,
By once using Lee's Sovereign Ointment.

The proprietor informs those persons and families who are suffering under this disease, (against the infection of which no person is safe) that if this ointment is used at night on going to bed, it never fails to perform a cure by the following morning, as thousands who have used it during the last ten years can testify. The peculiar excellencies of this infallible remedy for the itch, over every other, are the certainty of a cure by a single application: the ingredients being so innocent as to be applied with perfect safety to the tenderest infant, and its being not only free from any offensive smell, but equally agreeable with the pleasantest pomatum

DOCTOR CHISHOLM'S
Anti-Bilious Pills,

Of a quality superior to any thing of the kind ever offered as a GENERAL MEDICINE, in this Countr.

NOW prepared from a recipe of the celebrated Dr. Chisholm, who, from a long residence in the West-India Islands, has been enabled to favor the world with the most complete history, and most approved methods of curing all the BILIOUS DISEASES of those warm climates.

This extraordinary Medicine, which now for the first time is finding its way into general practice, has properties in the highest degree superior to the mercurial nostrums so frequently recommended by the name of Anti-Bilious Pills. The extraordinary powers of this medicine as a solvent and evacuent of Bile, is without example; never producing debility or injuring the health, in the smallest degree, of the most delicate child or weakly female:

The BILIOUS HEAD-ACHE, so much complained of in this country, and in the neighbourhood of rivers, is often removed by a single dose, which, to a strong man, is only five pills, and to a weakly woman, three. The same dose will generally remove the most excruciating pains of the cholic, like a charm, by abusing the bile to pass downwards in the course of an hour or two.

Two or three Pills taken an hour before dinner, and repeated every third day, will effectually remove those diseases arising from flatulency and indigestion, and by persevering in the use of them for a considerable time, the appetite will be improved, and strength and vigor will return.

Two Pills taken at bed time, with a cup of penny-royal tea, and repeated every second night, will effectually remove Rheumatic pains wherever seated.

A single Pill, taken every fourth hour with a cup of flaxseed tea, will cure Pleurisy, promote expectoration, and relieve coughs and colds.

In CONSUMPTIVE CASES and DISEASES OF THE LIVER, no medicine ever yet discovered, has been known to perform such cures. Two Pills taken every third morning, will be found sufficient, unless costiveness prevails; in which case the dose may be increased according to the strength or constitution.

The Dysentery, Croup, and Summer Complaint on children, are soon relieved by a few doses. A single Pill to a child of 6 years old, and the dose increased according to their strength and age.

In Asthmatic or Phthisical cases, where the laborious breathing & great oppression, with faintings, are fast sinking the patient to the brink of the grave, a few Pills, taking one every hour, with fennel or pepper-mint tea, will often enable the patient to walk about in a few hours.

The above valuable Medicine is Sold

Public Sale of LAND, ON THE RIVER OHIO.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the Honorable the Supreme Court of the United States, will be sold by public auction, to the highest bidder, at Mason County Court House, (Point Pleasant) Virginia, on the 5d Tuesday in October next, a Tract of Land in the said county, known by the name of "Graham's Station,"

Lying on the Ohio River, from 18 to 24 miles above the mouth of the Great Kenhawa; containing 600 acres.

This tract is very handsomely situated on a bend of the river, for nearly 6 miles bounded by it, and backwards by two strait lines, being of a triangular form.

Persons of respectability acquainted with it describe the bottom or low ground on the river, as "from three quarters of a mile to a mile in width, and not inferior in quality to the general average of bottom lands on the Ohio: and that the hill land is well calculated for small grain and good upland farms, although about a third of it does not admit of easy cultivation."

On this land 9 farms, with log houses there on have been laid out, and several hundred acres cleared and under fence. There is a public ferry established from it across the Ohio.—On a large creek is a good site for water works, where formerly was erected a Grist and Saw Mill, now decayed.

A number of respectable and industrious German families were formerly settled on this tract, some of them are probably still there, others in the neighbourhood. These persons are desirous of a speedy settlement thereof, not only with a view to the general improvement of the country, but from the laudable motives of obtaining additional society, and aid towards the support of a School-master and Preacher.

It is proposed to divide the tract into six lots of 1000 acres each, in order to accommodate purchasers. The terms of payment will be made known on the day of sale. The title has been adjudged by the Supreme Court to be unexceptionable, and deeds will be made to the purchasers, with general warranty free from all incumbrances.

It is wished that persons intending to purchase will, by themselves or agents, examine the land and form their own judgements as to its soil, improvements, situation and local advantages.

Mr. Gideon Hinkle, residing on the adjoining tract, will shew it, or point out a proper person for that purpose, with whom a plat will be lodged.
